

Rona Green

ODD BODS

August 2026

Rona Green is interested in how identity is expressed via the body and the ways it can be altered, the skin and its potential to be the stem point for transformation, and how the body can be a vehicle for story by means of transformative devices, particularly anthropomorphism and body decoration.

Since the early 1990s Rona has exhibited extensively in Australia and internationally. Rona has received accolades for her printmaking including the Silk Cut Award Grand Prize, Swan Hill Print Award and Geelong Print Prize. Her work is represented in over 70 public collections including the National Gallery of Australia.

Rona lives and works in Melbourne. She is represented by Australian Galleries in Melbourne and Sydney, and Penny Contemporary in Hobart.
